

Standard SightLine console shown with mousetrap motion mount, single armrest (break-away), cup holder, 2 12V sockets

Feature	Benefit
Safety and ergonomics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Designed for safety, aesthetics and comfort: rounded corners, smooth surfaces and contoured edges assure occupant protection • Adjustable armrest positioning for increased ergonomics • Break-away armrest design allows for less restriction in-vehicle, in case of emergency • Mousetrap motion mount has built-in safety features with auto-retract function and left / right swing positioning 'lock-out' capability
Aircraft-grade aluminum construction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lightweight aluminum provides structural integrity, resists corrosion and reduces vibration • Strong and sturdy enclosure prevents vibration and allows for long-term endurance • Finished in high quality black epoxy powder coat for durability
Modular, versatile design	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Accessories available for application- or customer-specific requirements (see below) • Variety of motion mounts (tilt, swivel, fore / aft, etc.) for optimal device positioning, ease-of user access and in-vehicle safety
Installation and maintenance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Easy to install / replace face plates with unique design elements: 1/2" increment face plate, floating nut' console rail, flexible ear plate style • Simple, set-up and upfitting. No drilling or permanent modification to vehicle • Only popular / common hand tools are required for installation and maintenance

Dimensions
Width	9.2" (23.3 cm)
Height	10.0" (25.4 cm)
Length	25.9" (65.7 cm)

Console Accessories
Single or dual cup holder
Single 'break-away' or dual armrest
Equipment-specific or blank face plate
12V socket (w/ cover)
Dual USB charging socket (w/ cover)
Armrest printer mount
Containment tray

